

Paulette Kolarz
BespokeHR - Managing Director

Paulette Kolarz

BespokeHR - Managing Director

As a key note speaker, educator and mentor, Paulette inspires people through her practical and humanistic approach to leadership. Paulette's experience has been crucial in crafting various business events, conferences or private events with impact. Paulette focusses on equipping leaders with the skills, knowledge and tools required to build productive, high performing teams and great organisational culture.

Paulette Kolarz is widely recognised as one of Australia's leading authorities in Human Resource Management and Leadership Development. As the founder and Managing Director of BespokeHR Paulette is passionate about growing and inspiring great workplaces. Truly partnering with her clients, she designs and implements effective people, leadership and management strategies to help take businesses to the next level.

As a key note speaker, educator and mentor, Paulette inspires people through her practical and humanistic approach to leadership. With an unwavering belief that 'You can't have good HR without great leaders', Paulette focusses on equipping leaders with the skills, knowledge and tools required to build productive, high performing teams and great organisational culture.

With more than 20 years' experience in HR / People and Culture Paulette is a master in her field, recognised for her contributions through a number of awards including Telstra Business Women of the Year, The PricewaterhouseCoopers Young Business Women of the Year and the Hudson Private and Corporate Business Women of the Year in South Australia.

